Standard Administrative Procedure Statement
The Texas A&M Engineering Experiment Station (TEES) requires that directors of board-approved centers and institutes be appointed in accordance with procedures noted below.

Reason for Standard Administrative Procedure
This standard administrative procedure (SAP) defines the process leading to the appointment of TEES center and institute directors.

Procedures and Responsibilities

1. AUTHORITY TO MAKE OR RESCIND AN APPOINTMENT

1.1 The TEES director appoints and removes TEES center and institute directors.
1.2 Appointments are made by the TEES director at inception of a center or institute or when a vacancy occurs.
1.3 The TEES director may change the leadership of a TEES center or institute with or without cause consistent with applicable TAMUS policies.
1.4 The TEES Director will review the performance of TEES center and institute directors at least biennially.

2. PROCESS TO IDENTIFY, RECOMMEND AND APPOINT CANDIDATES

2.1 This process applies to the identification and appointment of candidates for a TEES center or institute director either at inception of a center or institute or when a vacancy in the position of a center or institute director occurs.
2.2 The TEES director may solicit nominations and information from stakeholders or advisors as he or she deems appropriate. These may include, but are not limited to, the current director, TEES leadership, advisory board members for TEES and/or centers, faculty, staff, and other directors. In addition, the TEES director may publically solicit nominations.
2.3 The TEES director will receive names and qualifications of at least two qualified nominees.
2.4 The TEES director will review the qualifications of the candidates. A candidate can be selected or rejected during the review. The search process will be restarted in the case of a failed search.
2.5 Processes used to identify candidates and appoint TEES center or institute directors shall conform to applicable TAMUS policies.

2.6 The TEES director may appoint an interim TEES center or institute director as necessary.

3. DELEGATION

3.1 The TEES Director may delegate any authorities, responsibilities and processes defined in this SAP.
